

RAFFA Awarded

the coveted

London 2012 Inspire mark

for it's

“Passing the Baton Festival”

RAFFA and it's host COGOP have been awarded the coveted London 2012 Inspire mark for the 'Passing the Baton Festival'.

The festival aims to inspire 'peaceful, caring & enterprising neighbourhoods', with a programme of exciting events and activities focused on:

- Youth and Social Media (arts, culture, fashion, hair, music, science and sports)
- Business & Enterprise
- Health & Wellbeing
- Learning & Skills
- Volunteering for Social Action

Seb Coe, Chair of the London Organising Committee of the Olympic Games and Paralympic Games said: 'The Inspire programme is ensuring the legacy of the 2012 Games starts now as projects like Passing the Baton are enabling people in Neighbourhoods to make life changes.'

Rudi Page, CEO of RAFFA and Executive member of More Than Gold, stated "This is a very exciting achievement, we are delighted to receive this award from the London Organising Committee of the Olympic and Paralympic Games (LOCOG), it has taken a lot of hard work and dedication to achieve this recognition. We aim to connect and inspire sustainable relationships across countries, communities, cultures and generations".

Passing the Baton Festival, has utilized the key aims of 2012 Games as a catalyst to reach young people all around the world, by leveraging facilities, practitioners, professionals and social entrepreneurs.

We can help YOU Get Involved!

For more information, please contact Rudi Page on rudi@raffa.org.uk or tel. + 44 (0) 7958 744660

For more information, see link: <http://www.raffa.org.uk/london-2012/>

'peaceful, caring & enterprising neighbourhoods'

